WHEREAS people in our community are touched by cancer every day; and

WHEREAS for more than 75 years, people in our communities have helped the Canadian Cancer Society, during their Daffodil Month campaign, to raise funds for research that is helping more people in our communities survive cancer; and

WHEREAS Canadian Cancer Society volunteers in our community join thousands of volunteers across Canada to show their support for people living with cancer during the month of April by raising funds through the sale of daffodil pins; and

WHEREAS Daffodil Month also offers us the opportunity to learn about ways to reduce our risk of getting cancer, and to celebrate our survivors and acknowledge the tremendous contributions of volunteers and donors;

NOW THEREFORE I, Robert L. Quaiff, Mayor of The Corporation of the County of Prince Edward, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2017 as “Daffodil Month” in the County of Prince Edward. I urge all citizens of our municipality to fight back against cancer by supporting the Canadian Cancer Society's annual sale of daffodil pins and annual door-to-door fundraising campaign.
